About the Mescal Movie Set

The Mescal Movie Set is the historic film site for the movies Tombstone, Monte Walsh, The Outlaw Josey Wales, and over 80 other westerns. Many iconic stars walked its dusty streets, including Paul Newman, Steve McQueen, Clint Eastwood, Ava Gardner, Elizabeth Taylor, Frank Sinatra, and many more. But time took its toll, and the set was nearing demolition. Thankfully, local ranchers acquired the property and didn't let this essential piece of western history be lost. Plans are to rebuild the set into an authentic western frontier town and bring film production back to southern Arizona.
