About The Central Florida Hope Center:

To date, the Central Florida Hope Center has provided over half a million meals, secured 1,000 jobs, and celebrated 400 "graduations" from homelessness. The center has also provided care counseling to over 3,300 individuals. The goal of the Hope Center is to provide practical solutions to individuals and families facing hunger, homelessness, and unemployment, while partnering and building relationships with other community organizations to create "hands-up" solutions that have lasting impacts. To learn more about programming, current needs, or to donate, visit the Central Florida Hope Center website.
