

US must sanction Pakistan for human rights abuses in Sindh

Sindhis Demand Referendum from UN

WASHINGTON, DC, USA, August 15, 2021 /EINPresswire.com/ -- Sindhis and their supporters gathered in Washington DC on August 14th and demanded US to sanction Pakistan.

To reclaim the day as an opportunity to take action and raise awareness for the silenced plight of Sindhis in Pakistan, which include state-sponsored murder and abductions, Sindhis and supporters gathered for a vehicular rally across the capital city of the United States.

Munawar Laghari speaking outside Pakistani Embassy

Whether walking, driving, or cycling past, passersby could not ignore the block of almost 20 cars adorned with bright banners and filled with energetic, flag-waving passengers. The banners conveyed messages of resolve and even demands, including:

“

We want free Sindh, justice and peace. US and UN must support Sindhis. That is why we are here.”

Munawar Laghari

Save Sindh civilization, stop genocide in Sindh;

Water for life, save Indus River; and

UN must do a referendum for an independent Sindh.

Stop Enforced Disappearances of Sindhis

Stop Forced Conversions of Sindhi Hindu Girls

Release Syed Zain Shah

Rally participants shared powerful words at two stops, at the Capitol building and the Pakistani embassy.

“The Pakistani government and its military steals land, abducts civilians, bombs innocent children, and tortures prisoners. They suppress media reporting and journalism,” said Surya Naga, a human rights activist.

“We envision a world where Sindhis are free to return to their homes and explore their careers and revive their folk art, without children having to fear humiliation by an army seeking to expel them from their own land. A Sindh where Sindhis can live.”

Rally for Sindhis at Capitol Hill

Munawar “Sufi” Laghari ended the rally with closing remarks, saying “We want free Sindh, justice and peace. US and UN must support Sindhis. That is why we are here.”

Andrea Barron from Torture Abolition and Survivor Support Coalition (TASSC) also spoke at the Rally for Sindhis, she appreciated the efforts of Sindhi Foundation and Sufi Munawar Laghari who is also a founding member at TASSC. She also commended the team of Sindhi Foundation for completing 350 miles Long Walk to highlight Sindh issues in April this year.

The rally reflects the continued and creative resolve of Sindhi people to protect their freedom, culture, and natural resources, even — or perhaps especially — in the face of a worsening pandemic and political climate at home.

The Sindhi Foundation exists to build bridges between Sindhi people and the international community and promote freedom for Sindhis and all oppressed people. To learn more or get involved, visit our website at sindhifoundation.org

Sufi Laghari
Sindhi Foundation
+1 202-378-0333
email us here

This press release can be viewed online at: <https://www.einpresswire.com/article/548921714>

EIN Presswire's priority is source transparency. We do not allow opaque clients, and our editors try to be careful about weeding out false and misleading content. As a user, if you see something we have missed, please do bring it to our attention. Your help is welcome. EIN Presswire, Everyone's Internet News Presswire™, tries to define some of the boundaries that are reasonable in today's world. Please see our Editorial Guidelines for more information.

© 1995-2021 IPD Group, Inc. All Right Reserved.