

MillionaireMatch Launches a New Exclusive Feature 'Help Center' on the iPhone

LOS ANGELES, CALIFORNIA, US, August 20, 2021 /EINPresswire.com/ -- MillionaireMatch, an internet dating site that connects successful and attractive singles, has recently announced the availability of the brand-new Help Center feature on the iPhone.

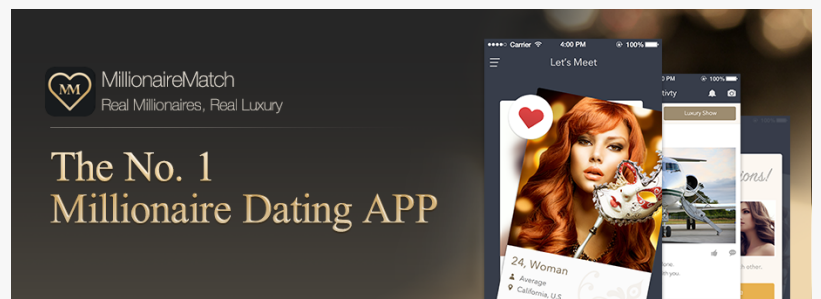

The new Help Center feature is an innovative take on a news feed. Members teach and advise each other, sharing valuable skills and lessons and personal and professional life advice. Some users tell others about events in their community like yoga classes. They also help others learn how to dance, sew and knit. An overwhelming amount of members leave positive remarks and little anecdotes to help get others through their day. As the Help Center grows, it will expand to hold more resources for the community.

Voted "Best of The Web" by Forbes.com, MillionaireMatch also offers other exciting and unique features. 24/7 customer support is there for you to answer any queries you may have. Enhanced privacy protection is a major plus, which is designed to protect your privacy. Dating counselors are also there to help guide you to find a suitable wealthy partner. It even provides members the opportunity to verify their income and photos, so you can truly meet a certified millionaire.

In the MillionaireMatch app, you're also able to filter your searches with basic options such as age, gender, location, religion, or even smoking preferences. On the main page or dashboard, you can see who 'likes' and views your page and potential matches, among other excellent features.
