It's an honor to be recognized by Inc. 5000 and ranked among the best innovators in business... To get us here, it has taken an immensely talented team with a true belief in our mission”

Vineeth Yeddula, CEO, KPI Ninja

This is the first year that KPI Ninja has been recognized by Inc. magazine for being a top growing private company. KPI Ninja experienced record-breaking growth in 2020, with revenue increasing over 1000 percent over the last three years, earning its 448 spot on the list.

“It's an honor to be recognized by Inc. 5000 and ranked among the best innovators in business. At KPI Ninja, we feel the way to improve our healthcare system is through data-driven strategies” said Vineeth Yeddula, KPI Ninja's CEO. “To get us here, it has taken an immensely talented team with a true belief in our mission. Our opportunity now is to capitalize on our position and together with our partners, continue to demonstrate the power of health data.”

The list represents a unique look at the most successful companies within the American economy's most dynamic segment—its independent small businesses. Microsoft, Dell, LinkedIn and many other well-known names gained their first national exposure as honorees on the Inc. 5000.

“The 2021 Inc. 5000 list feels like one of the most important rosters of companies ever compiled,” says Scott Omelianuk, editor-in-chief of Inc. “Building one of the fastest-growing companies in America in any year is a remarkable achievement. Building one in the crisis we’ve lived through is just plain amazing. This kind of accomplishment comes with hard work, smart pivots, great leadership, and the help of a whole lot of people.”
