

Launch of COCA Partners, LLC

New Retained Executive Search Consultancy Set to Disrupt Recruiting Industry

UNITED STATES, August 18, 2021
/EINPresswire.com/ -- COCA Partners, LLC ("COCA"), a retained executive search consultancy announced its launch today, utilizing a business model intended to disrupt the recruiting industry.

COCA's flexible process, innovative fee structure, and unmatched guarantee are intended to set new standards in retained search. In an extremely competitive talent market, COCA supports organizations seeking to fill executive leadership roles in healthcare, IT, finance, nonprofit, and other industries.

"From the very start, we decided we wanted to do things differently," said Carolyn Henn, COCA founding partner. "Our creative approach to retained search, along with our expertise, resources, and networks ensure we achieve exceptional results for our clients and candidates."

"Building relationships is at our core," said Cody Cober, COCA founding partner. "Regardless of which side of the job search you're on, our mission is to provide clear and honest communications, set realistic expectations, and operate with an unwavering commitment to respect and equality."

COCA's purpose is to help organizations effect positive change through leadership; offer candidates an incomparable experience; and provide its own employees with a diverse, inclusive, and enriching workplace. COCA supports the placement of talented leaders across multiple industries with a unique approach to executive search.
