Both of these agricultural properties are fine examples of why New Jersey is called the Garden State.”

The Alexandria Township farm on Little York Mount Pleasant Road (also known as CR-519) is 100+/- acres of preserved farmland with a turn-of-the-century country home, ready for restoration. Alternatively, the house can be demolished and a new home may be constructed. The property includes an equipment barn with second floor storage and ample road frontage along Everittstown Road and CR-519. Formerly the George V. Forman Homestead, this farm is situated within the picturesque rolling Hunterdon County hillside.

Property Previews for the Alexandria Township farm are scheduled from 12 noon to 2:00PM on Saturday, August 28th. The online only Auction will conclude on Thursday, September 9, 2021 at 11:00AM.

The Township owned "McCarron Farm" was preserved by Marlboro Township and the New Jersey

State Agricultural Development Committee. This farm provides privacy, acreage for crops or livestock, and close proximity to the New Jersey Beaches. The new buyer will be able to build their dream country estate on the 43+/- acre preserved farm or renovate the existing home built circa 1910. Marlboro Township offers residents a suburban country feel with easy access to nearby fine dining, shopping, New York City, and the beach.
