Guy Roofing and the Carolina Panthers announce nominations are now being accepted for the fifth annual High School Community Captains Awards, a program that recognizes leadership in ten exemplary high school students in North or South Carolina.

The 2019 class of High School Community Captains during their pre-game award ceremony.

The application period runs August 15th – September 15th, 2021; a total of ten Community Captains will be selected, each of whom demonstrate academic merit, athletic excellence, and community involvement. Winners are recognized during a pre-game on-field presentation at Bank of America Stadium.

The Carolina Panthers are pleased to partner with Guy Roofing for the High School Community Captain program. The impact made by these outstanding student-athletes sets a standard for others to follow.”

This year’s awards ceremony will take place November 7th, 2021, when the Panthers host the New England Patriots at Bank of America Stadium. Winners receive a $500 gift for their school’s athletic program and a Gameday Experience package (includes tickets and pre-game field passes).

Jeff Guy, Vice President of Guy Roofing, remarked, “The Community Captains program is a rewarding way for us to highlight hardworking, motivated, compassionate students who put in the work – on the field, in the classroom, and in their communities. To celebrate their achievements and honor them alongside the Carolina Panthers is a powerful reminder that, through hard work and commitment, anything is possible.”

“The Carolina Panthers are pleased to partner with Guy Roofing for the High School Community Captain program,” said Riley Fields, Panthers Director of Community Relations. “The impact made by these outstanding student-athletes in the classroom, on the field and in their communities sets a standard for others to follow. We are honored to recognize their many contributions they make to their communities.”
