

JIPL Books Giveaway Contest 2021 Start on August 20th all over India

A competition will be started by Jaipur International Poetry Library (JIPL) from 20/08/21.

JAIPUR, RAJASTHAN, INDIA, August 18, 2021 /EINPresswire.com/ -- English: JIPL Books Giveaway Contest 2021

A competition will be started by Jaipur International Poetry Library (JIPL) from 20/08/21. Through the competition, books of 8 selected authors from the Hindi region of India will be given as a gift to the readers. This competition is basically being organized to ensure the accessible presence of literature to the general public. It is said that literature is the mirror of our society. Therefore it should be available to every section of our society. It is our moral obligation to make it accessible to the general public easily. To discharge this responsibility, Jaipur International Poetry Library has announced this competition. JIPL organizes Arts and Literature Festival every year in January.

Authors selected by JIPL in this competition:

Sujata (Book: The Feminine Side of Criticism) Ramkumar Singh (Book: From Idea to Screen) Rishabh Prateeksha (Book: Crick Panda Pon Pon)

Beautified (Book: The Second Pen)

Alok Kumar Mishra (Book: Why You Be Like Me)

Bhagwant Anmol (Book: Theorem) Neeti Pandey (Book: Qurbante)

Kusum Goswami (Book: Meghna' An Albelly Puzzle)

The important points of the competition are as follows:-

- The contest will be held on the social media platforms of Jaipur International Poetry Library (JIPL) (Facebook, Twitter, Instagram and Lines App)
- One book each from eight authors has been selected. Through the competition, five books of each of the authors were sent as gifts to the readers.
- Competition will be organized for two different books on each social media platform.
- There will be one question based on each of the books in the competition. You have to answer this through comment box, inbox or mail (as per your convenience).

JIPL Founder Rahul Choudhary says, JIPL Books has always been doing such programs for literature and society.

Regards, Jaipur International Poetry Library.
