

Immersive, Captivating and Exciting Hip Hop & Rap Music: Viral North Carolina Sensation Montana Stax Amazes in New Album

With the release of his new album, "How I Spent My Vacation 2", Raleigh-based singer-songwriter, Montana Stax remains inspired to enthrall listeners.

RALEIGH, NORTH CAROLINA, UNITED STATES, August 20, 2021

/EINPresswire.com/ -- Aiming to tune out the tumult and chaos of the world Montana Stax is spinning magic with his relatable and memorable musical compositions. He is motivated to amaze listeners while staying true to his unique musical rhythms.

With the release of his new album "How I Spent My Vacation 2" on August 7th, 2021, the young, rising artist stuns listeners with a range of electric rhythms and lyrical brilliance. Be it the artist's baritone delivering the catharses of fun convertible rides down the beach or the soothing, crashing symphonies of the seas, Montana Stax's imagery-filled songs set him a class apart from other mainstream artists.

"How I Spent My Vacation 2" has been the result of Montana Stax and his collaborative endeavors with sound engineers Damian Hasbun and Zachary Phillips, who helped him with their inimitable handwork and dedication. The artist also remains motivated by his friend Dre Cannonz, whom he recounts as a driving inspiration and teacher. It was his mother's wise words encouraging him to believe, that led to the creation of the single, "Believe".

"Ultimately, I would love to start a successful record label where I can provide opportunities for young like-minded artists to achieve all the things, they believe are possible," says Montana Stax regarding his musical journey.
