Cinnamon Dhonveli Maldives, recently completed yet another successful Kite Festival for its in-house guests.

MALE, MALDIVES, August 23, 2021
/EINPresswire.com/ -- Cinnamon Dhonveli Maldives, a property under Cinnamon Hotels & Resorts - Sri Lanka's leading hospitality chain - recently completed yet another successful Kite Festival for its in-house guests. The coveted Maldives resort true to its reputation as a world-renowned adventure and family island embodied the spirit of relaxation and family togetherness with over 50 traditional and modern kite designs brightening up the coast and skies of the island.

Speaking with the General Manager, Cinnamon Dhonveli Maldives - Sanjeeva Perera stated: "Cinnamon Dhonveli Maldives prides itself in providing an exceptional holiday experience to pamper the modern traveller through lavish relaxation and unique experiences. Located a mere 20 minutes from Male, our adventure island guarantees action-packed water sports and endless fun for every type of thrill seeker, in search of a truly unique vacation that brings together the best of sun, sand, sea and excitement."

The Kite Festival was set to the backdrop of the cool ocean breeze, breathtaking orange sun, rippling blue ocean waves, and offered a mix of traditional and modern kite designs, with opportunities for guests to experience art & local culture coupled with world-class entertainment.

Cinnamon Dhonveli Maldives also offered guests the opportunity to partake in kite-making and flying competitions ('Best Kite', 'Furthest Flown Kite', 'Fancy dress like a kite') including activities such as face painting and childrens' games, conducted under strict COVID-19 health & safety regulations and the 'Cinnamon Care' program - The Cinnamon Standard for Care and Cleanliness.

Concluding, Perera stated: "Overall the Kite Festival was a resounding success in which we were able to ensure our guests continued to enjoy their slice of paradise, despite the challenges, whilst adhering to the necessary safety and health guidelines in place. It is our prerogative that whilst we must ensure the safety of not only our guests, but also our staff, that we do not falter to find new, innovative ways to provide guests with safe outlets to enjoy their holiday with us. At Cinnamon we continue to push the boundary to constantly innovate - putting guests needs, safety above all. I am pleased that we were able to create yet another inspiring moment for our guests in accordance with the brand ethos of Cinnamon. We originally began the Kite Festival in 2018, and are pleased to have been able to continue in this annual tradition even under the prevailing conditions."
