Jamasi No Love

With a following beginning to erupt in Toronto, Canada, Jamasi's continued music releases continue to excite and entice listeners. With a uniquely urban feel, Jamasi combines natural talent with hard work to create his music. "He draws on urban feels and sights in his music video even as he makes it into a personal story," noted from his YouTube channel. With a mix of unique sounds or, as Jamasi puts it, "[A] middle ground between R&B, rap, and hip hop," No Love hits all the marks.

I believe everyone in the world is born with genius-level talent. Apply yourself to whatever you're genius at, and you can do anything in the world.”

Jay Z

“Jamasi's sound will be up your alley if you like the work of songwriters such as Chris Brown, Usher, and Lil Wayne, only to mention a few. Despite an affinity with the aforementioned artists, Jamasi definitely stands out with a sound that feels unique and forward-thinking. The wide range of sounds and ideas portrayed on this record are truly remarkable, and it's amazing to hear how much focus and care went into the making of this fascinating studio release.”

With his new hit song, No Love, set to release on September 17, more excitement will soon follow with the release of his upcoming animated lyric video plus an additional music video not long after. To ensure you catch these exclusive drops, be sure to follow Jamasi on YouTube and Instagram. Plus, you can pre-save No Love today on Spotify.
