

(Video) The Mirage of Moderation in Iran

The state-run media are warning the mullahs regime officials about the possible ramifications of constantly declining economic and living conditions.

PARIS, FRANCE, August 22, 2021 /EINPresswire.com/ -- Conscious that the theatrics of moderates versus conservatives can no longer fool people within or outside its borders, the Iranian clergy decided to bet on the one who over 40 years has shown himself to be its bloodiest and unscrupulous mass murderer. The message is clear.

Gone are the days of supposed reform. The regime intends to openly continue its blundering and mismanagement of the country to fuel its terrorist and expansionist apparatus and repress, imprison, and assassinate to keep the privileges of the ruling class.

Ali Khamenei has expressed his fear of MEK's growing influence among youth, especially when Iranian society is in an explosive state and protests are witnessed across the country daily.”

Hamid Enayat

The mullahs are, however, underestimating Iranian society's rage against the rule. Immediately after the sham elections, workers of the Petrol industry have multiplied strikes. The population demonstrates against the lack of electricity supply.

The Iranian population massively ignored the sham presidential election. The regime is entirely unable to reform itself. Popular aspirations can only be achieved by a free secular and democratic government, which is not guided by the mullahs' fanatic plan to subvert the world but by the will to improve the living conditions of its people.

The democratic world should recognize the Iranian people's right to full self-determination and the right to choose their government freely. This is the only way to satisfy the people's aspirations, free the region's nations from the terrorist activities perpetrated by the Islamic Revolutionary Guards(IRGC), and for the free world to gain a committed and reliable partner.

Let us see what million Iranians are calling for:

With the Iranian regime's new president Ebrahim Raisi taking office on August 5, the mullahs are trying to intensify their repression of Iranian society. The internal network of the Iranian opposition movement, including the People's Mojahedin Organization of Iran (PMOI/MEK), bravely carried out its anti-regime activities despite all risks.

During past weeks, the network of the MEK inside Iran, known as the Iranian Resistance Units, organized a vast campaign in various cities across the country, calling for regime change.

In recent years, the MEK has expanded its network inside the country and has played a significant role in leading Iran protests, despite the frequent arrests of its sympathizers. During the annual event of the Iranian opposition, the Free Iran Global Summit 2021, over 1000 video messages were sent from inside of Iran in support of the MEK and Maryam Rajavi, the President-elect of the National Council of Resistance of Iran \(NCRI\).

Many regime officials, including its supreme leader Ali Khamenei, have expressed their fear of MEK's growing influence among youth, especially when Iranian society is in an explosive state and protests are witnessed across the country daily.

The state-run are warning regime officials about the possible ramifications of constantly declining economic and living conditions. Our duty is to stop appeasing the fanatic terrorist expansionist Iranian clergy and stand with the Iranian people.
