"I'm delighted that Elizabeth Wellington was confirmed to serve as a Toys For Tots Ambassador. She is a wonderful partner to work with and has already made important contributions for the organization. I am confident that she will be a tremendous asset to the mission," said Nassau County Director, Long Island African American Chamber of Commerce, (LIAACC), Valerie Anderson Campbell.

"I'm honored and grateful to be able to continue to serve. I look forward to continuing to work with my colleagues and the community," said Nassau County Deputy Director, Long Island African American Chamber of Commerce, (LIAACC), Elizabeth Wellington.

Prior to joining the Toys For Tots Program, Mrs. Wellington maintains her position as Program Coordinator at the Nassau County Commission on Human Rights. She is the Vice President of Wellie the Transporter LLC., an over-the-road trucking company and the Deputy Director for Long Island African American Chamber of Commerce Inc., (LIAACC), the largest African American chamber in New York State. Mrs. Wellington graduated from Nassau Community College and John Jay College of Criminal Justice earned an A.S and B.S in Criminal Justice. Master's degree in Public Administration with two specializations: Human Resources and Management & Operations.
