

Film Produced in Guanajuato Wins 21 Awards and International Acclaim

Supported by the Guanajuato Film Commission, this powerful drama is an example of how the state of Guanajuato creates the ideal conditions for film productions

GUANAJUATO, GUANAJUATO, MEXICO, August 24, 2021 /EINPresswire.com/ -- One of the most fascinating and disturbing films of recent times, Sin Señas Particulares is strong proof that the state of Guanajuato is a welcoming haven for film professionals and the ideal place for shooting and producing in Mexico.

Made 90 percent within the state of Guanajuato, Sin Señas Particulares was filmed in Guanajuato City between October and December 2018 with the full support of the Film Commission under the Guanajuato Tourism Secretariat (CFGTO).

The support provided by the CFGTO included assistance in hiring personnel, purchases of goods, rentals of real and personal property, and rentals of services such as lodging and transportation.

Sin Señas Particulares follows the journey of a mother willing to do anything to find her son who is missing after he leaves home to cross the border into the US. The film itself transcended borders and audiences attending film festivals in Belgium, Korea, the United States, Russia, Ukraine, Peru, Spain, Switzerland, among other places worldwide, witnessed Guanajuato's talent through this significant project.

So far, Sin Señas Particulares has earned more than 21 awards at international festivals including:
