Boasting two Topgolf® Swing Suites® and outfitted with 10 TVs, Reiners will treat guests to an immersive sports experience and exciting place to socialize. The menu will feature a combination of local cuisine and seafood favorites as well as elevated pub fare to enjoy while watching a game or gathering with friends and family. The beverage program will offer classic artisan cocktails, flavorful wine varietals, and a rotating selection of craft beer available on tap.

Reiners will be a fantastic addition to Graduate Providence. We are thrilled to provide guests, locals and students with a distinct new restaurant and experience within our historic hotel. ”

Scott Williams, General Manager of Graduate Providence

“Reiners will be a fantastic addition to Graduate Providence,” said Scott Williams, General Manager of Graduate Providence. “We are thrilled to provide guests, locals and students with a distinct new restaurant and experience within our historic hotel. The team has built an incredibly unique offering here that we feel confident the community will enjoy for generations to come.”

“Providence is such an energetic, vibrant and active community, and we are delighted to open a restaurant that exudes that same energy,” said Michael Schultz, Founder and CEO of Infuse Hospitality. “Reiners is a sports-lovers dream, bringing an inviting, playful, interactive experience and deliciously fun gathering spot for the community and guests of the Graduate Providence.”

The Reiners name pays homage to the historic Reiners drugstore, which was a community staple dating back to the early 1900s and held the same footprint. The restaurant’s decor is reminiscent of an iconic golf clubhouse from a popular ‘80s flick, complete with plaid and wood accents throughout, bringing character and a hint of nostalgia to this new establishment.

Reiners is the second restaurant to open at the Graduate Providence, joining the all-day cafe Poindexter Coffee. Opened in tandem with the hotel’s launch in 2019, Poindexter has continued to be a favorite among hotel guests and the community for grab-and-go coffee and light bites.

Reiners Bar and Game Room is opening in partnership with Graduate Hotels, a hand-crafted collection of hotels that reside in dynamic university-anchored towns in the U.S. and U.K., and Infuse Hospitality, a food and beverage management company that develops and manages best-in-class hospitality amenities.
