CORPORATE HOUSING IN MARIN COUNTY

Here is background on this release. Marin County (<https://www.keyhousing.com/corporate-housing-area/marin-county/>), located north of San Francisco across the San Francisco Bay, is California living at its best. Many European, British Citizens, and others come to the Bay Area for corporate travel. They may be assigned to a community such as Novato. As of the 2010 census, the population was about fifty thousand people. It's near San Rafael, Petaluma, and other key Marin county population centers. The economy is known to feature many prominent medical and biotech companies; thus many corporate travelers come to the city because of the medical connection. Others come looking for serviced apartments or furnished apartments in order to enjoy the California sunshine and quality of life. However, finding corporate or short term housing in Novato is not easy. It is not only expensive but difficult to find. For these reasons, the smart corporate traveler will do well to reach out to the experts at Key Housing to find not only the featured listing for September 2021 but those with the right amenities and availabilities.
