

New CREW member joins Inperium board

WEW CREW member Tiffany Newhouse, CEO, Newhouse Project Consulting, lands board seat

SAN FRANCISCO, CA, USA, August 31, 2021 /EINPresswire.com/ -- W.E.W.

Women Elevating Women is proud to announce the appointment of one of its newest WEW CREW members, Tiffany Newhouse, to the board of Inperium, a nonprofit corporation that provides a financial and administrative foundation for select nonprofit agencies to deliver health-related services to clients.

Tiffany Newhouse, CEO, Newhouse Project Consulting

The WEW CREW is a private peer advisory group for women of color with diverse backgrounds who meet virtually every month to network and learn about issues like access to capital for women of color, health and wellness, financial education, and collaborating with partners and teams.

Betty quickly began doing what she does best, and that is connecting people. This is what Women Elevating Women is all about.”

Tiffany Newhouse

A San Francisco-based expert in organizational development and change management, WEW CREW member Tiffany Newhouse has worked with small, midsize, and Fortune 500 companies for more than 20 years as CEO of Newhouse Project Consulting (NPC). NPC recently led the Bay Area Rapid Transit (BART) system through a comprehensive project focused on process improvements, leadership strategies, and culture transformation. Another project centered on the enterprise-wide implementation of a new software platform for healthcare giant Kaiser Permanente. NPC's change management team led the successful deployment of this first technology upgrade in 20 years for Kaiser Permanente Northern California, a $45 billion business with more than 75,000 employees.

Tiffany's most recent passion is RESILIENCE, a Mental Health Literacy Program delivered under the NPC brand to more than 7,000 people across the U.S. The RESILIENCE project works to increase knowledge and awareness of mental health issues, reduce stigma, and teach individuals to have the confidence to support themselves and others in a mental health crisis. With extensive experience not just as an entrepreneur but also as a leader at Fortune 100 companies including Microsoft and ChevronTexaco, Tiffany was interested in elevating her profile by using her time and talent as part of a corporate board of directors. She credits Women Elevating Women founder and CEO Betty Hines with opening up the opportunity for her to fulfill this goal. "Betty quickly began doing what she does best, and that is connecting people. This is what Women Elevating Women is all about."
