

The Karma of Deception

An epitome of the famous line that says what goes around, comes around

COOKSTOWN, NEW JERSEY, USA,
August 26, 2021 /EINPresswire.com/ -- "The Adventures of Wayo" by Felicia Koin Akamande is a book series about Wayo the Tortoise and his adventures.
Wayo means cunning in the Pidgin language (broken English as spoken by the Delta people of Nigeria). Just as the fox is the legendary trickster in British folktales and the wolf is that of the Americans; the Tortoise is the master of cunning and crafty practices in Nigerian folklore. There is hardly a story without the Tortoise in it. The Secret Eating Place, the first title in the series, is the story of how Wayo the Tortoise broke his shell. There was a famine in the land and only the birds knew where to get food. They felt sorry for Wayo and took him along. He decided to outsmart them and the reward he got for his cunning act was a broken shell.
