

Shabazz Speaks: Tulsa Reparations Action; Oklahoma City Jail; Racism/Allegation

Attorney Malik Zulu Shabazz returns to Tulsa, Oklahoma with a stronger message

TULSA, OK, USA, August 29, 2021

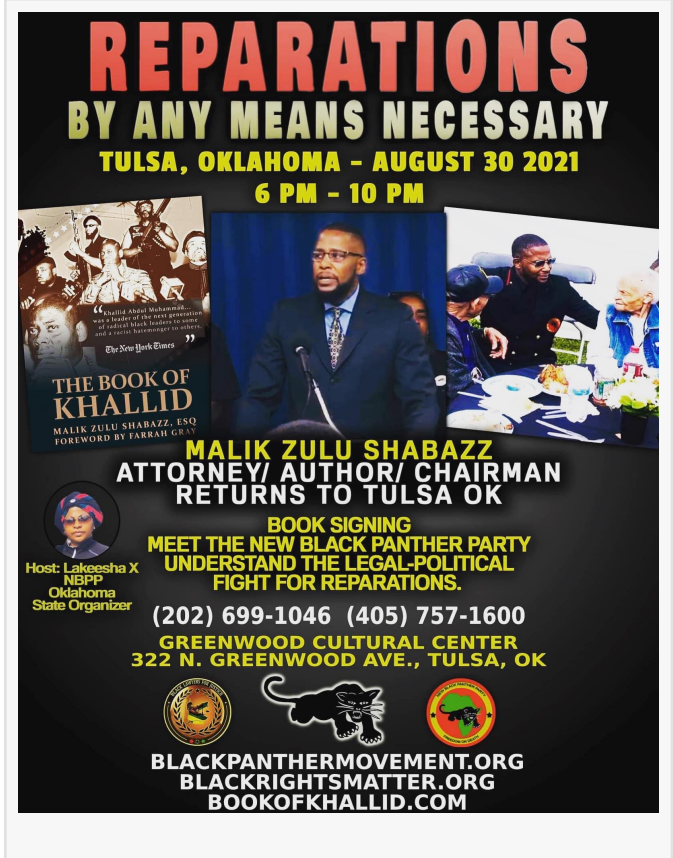

/EINPresswire.com/ -- Nationally renowned attorney and organizer, Malik Zulu Shabazz, Esq. returns to Oklahoma to keynote "Reparations By Any Means Necessary" and "The Conspiracy to Destroy Black Men of Oklahoma" in Oklahoma City. Malik Z. Shabazz, Esq. National President of Black Lawyers for Justice, Attorney General and national leader of the New Black Panther Party, was a co-organizer of the "Armed March for Reparations" which took place in Tulsa on May 29, 2021 on the 100-year anniversary of the Black Wall Street Massacre where hundreds of armed Blacks marched through Tulsa, amongst the armed demonstrators was the New Black Panther Party.

As follow-up to the Black Wall Street Centennial events held in May, Attorney Shabazz returns to Tulsa, Oklahoma with a stronger message: "Unfortunately, the excitement produced around the 100-year anniversary of the Black Wall Street Massacre has not produced the intended results. Blacks in Tulsa have yet to receive Reparations and Blacks in America have still not received the long-overdue demand for full and complete Reparations for the 500-year African Black Holocaust. As a result, we are returning to inspire, agitate and organize people and to meet with Reparations leaders towards the goal of assembling a united front for Reparations. We must now take a more aggressive and radical approach. We may have to take-up lawful arms and intensify our efforts to achieve our intended results." Major groups demanding Reparations in Oklahoma will join Attorney Shabazz to update the community and press on their struggle for Reparations and future goals.
