Certain statements contained in this press release constitute "forward-looking information" as that term is defined in applicable Canadian securities legislation.

Forward-looking information by its nature is based on assumptions and involve known and unknown risks, uncertainties and other factors which may cause the actual results, performance or achievements of the Company to be materially different from any future results, performance or achievements expressed or implied by such forward-looking statements or information. We have made certain assumptions about the forward-looking statements and information, including the ability to receive a final receipt for its Prospectus and its ability to obtain the Listing on the CSE and the timing for these events, and the benefits to be derived from becoming a public company. Although Cannibible's management believes that the assumptions made and the expectations represented by such information are reasonable, there can be no assurance that the forward-looking information will prove to be accurate. Furthermore, should one or more of the risks, uncertainties or other factors materialize, or should underlying assumptions prove incorrect, actual results may vary materially from those described in forward-looking statements or information. These risks, uncertainties and other factors include, inability to obtain a final receipt for the Prospectus or obtain CSE approval for the Listing, the possibility that a liquid market for Cannibible's shares will not develop after the Listing and that it will be unsuccessful in attracting new investors to support the development of its business, demand for its products, and those factors discussed in the section entitled "Risk Factors" in the Prospectus dated August 9, 2021 and filed on SEDAR. There can be no assurance that forward-looking statements or information will prove to be accurate, as actual results and future events could differ materially from those anticipated in such statements. Accordingly, readers should not place undue reliance on the forward-looking statements or information contained herein. Except as required by law, Cannibible does not expect to update forward-looking statements and information continually as conditions change
