Straight from Cali, Colombia, a beautiful place high in the mountains above the clouds, Monsieur Job began as a solo project for band founder Toby Holguin, as he released the critically acclaimed album "Bass Pa$$i". Looking to stimulate collaboration, Toby then decided to form a band with a musician he knew to be top notch, Leo Jaramillo from Bogota, Colombia. Both artists create their own style of music, and combined, Toby and Leo are Monsieur Job - a band that will truly rock your soul and make you move your feet.

An eclectic and versatile musician in the Latin genre, Toby had the idea to start doing Urban Music besides the Chill Out and Electronic Music he had been creating, which is the vision that created the album "Bass Pa$$i". Then Toby and Leo started dropping broken beats with a more festive, shaky, groovy Caribbean Latin flavor, turning the tunes into an international mash up of world talents in a unique blend of genres. There is also an electronic division called "EME JOTA BEAT BANG" which features Toby alongside super DJ Charlie Illera. Toby and Charlie consistently spin records for top venues around the world.

On their debut release together, "Chow Chow Eyyy Pow Pow", the record hit the Euro Indie Music

Chart at #1 for 9 consecutive weeks as well as progressive singles; "Kick it" Remix feat. Charly Black, "Pica Pica", Niña Shake Your Body" feat. No Mercy & Vojke Djans and "Chilliando Hanguendo" feat. Cholo, and "La Melancolic Happy" feat. Clindistino reaching the #1 position as well, the Digital Radio Tracker Top 10, and Top 200 for Best Albums, #2 for the Billboard Latin Rhythm Albums Chart, and the Billboard Top 10 Heatseekers Albums Chart for their album "Bass Pa$$i". This album was recorded in Bogota and Miami at Basswalk Studios, and Barba Studios in Belgrade and mastered at Sterling Studios, New York. Zona de Dropeo was recorded in Basswalk Studios in Cali and Bogotá.

Moreover, the next few Monsieur Job studio albums; "Zona de Dropeo" and "Revisited 2020" were released in late summer 2019 and included 15 consecutive charted singles, 11 in the Billboard Top 10 singles and 4 in the Top 20 such as; "A Escondidas", "Kick it", "Boogie..báilalo brincao", "Pica Pica", "Bájate las Bragas", "Busque Mal", "Muero por ti", "Vos Sos", "Me Contagié", "No Voy A Querer", "Tanto Tiempo Sin Verte", "Cucaracha", Gato por Liebre", "Gucci Celine", and "La Clave". They also peaked on the Top 10 Billboard Annual Artists of 2020 for Digital Latin Sales. As for 2021, they have maintained their efforts with eight Billboard hits in the Latin Digital Sales list so far this year.
