About The Wine Savant

Started in 2014, The Wine Savant's line of designer hand-blown glassware goods are now available in more than 15 countries. Manufactured in line with environmental standards, the quality Decanters, Glasses, and other giftware have made a splash in the United States since their official launch in 2014. With availability for Prime-2 day shipping and a dedicated distribution outfit in California and Pennsylvania. In more positive news, The Wine Savant is grateful for the enormous customer response to our important 10% charitable donation from all proceeds. Launched from day 1, our charities include schools, disadvantaged communities and community centers.
