

Mosquito Mary's Takes Bite Out of DFW Market with New Franchise Unit

The mosquito and tick control franchise has added over 7 new territories in 2021.

FORT WORTH, TEXAS, UNITED STATES, August 31, 2021 /EINPresswire.com/ -- Mosquito Mary's, a rapidly growing national mosquito and tick control franchise, just completed its latest franchise deal in Texas within the DFW area.

Kevin and Hunter West, a father-son duo from Fort Worth, are the two newest franchisees to join the Mosquito Mary's family. "We're very excited to have the chance to partner together and bring the amazing products and quality service of Mosquito Mary's to the DFW area," says Kevin West. "Keeping families and pets safe from mosquitos is our top priority and, as our company motto says, we're helping them 'enjoy the outdoors again.'" This newest deal marks the company's 16th operational territory.

"We're both passionate about providing world-class customer service, technical excellence and 100% customer satisfaction," says Kevin West.

Born and raised in Fort Worth, Texas, Kevin West is a 30-year supply chain veteran. After graduating from Texas A&M University, West married his high school sweetheart Michelle and went to work for Frito-Lay in manufacturing and logistics. He has since held supply chain roles
