

Marijuana Expungement Program Hits Miami During Orange Blossom Classic Weekend

M4MM's Project Clean Slate To Offer Free Legal Education Services to the Community

MIAMI, FL, UNITED STATES, August 31, 2021 /EINPresswire.com/ -- Minorities for Medical Marijuana (M4MM) is bringing their Project Clean Slate to Miami. Project Clean Slate is M4MM's social justice program providing expungement education and wrap-around services for individuals 18+ years old with minor marijuana possession charges. The clinic will take place Friday, September 3 from 4pm to 8pm at the Little Haiti Arts Center 5925 NE 2nd Ave, Miami, Florida 33137

The graphic features a yellow background with a green brushstroke at the top left containing the text 'PROJECT Clean Slate'. To the right is the M4MM logo (MINORITIES FOR MEDICAL MARIJUANA) and a Trulieve logo with the text 'SPONSORED BY Trulieve'. The central text reads 'GOT MARIJUANA CHARGES?' in large green and blue letters, followed by 'Free Expungement Services' and '#releaseandrepair' in a green box. Below this is 'PROJECTCLEANSLATE.ORG' and a green bar with the text 'SOME CHARGES ARE ELIGIBLE FOR EXPUNGEMENT OR SEALING'. At the bottom, it says 'M4MM's Project Clean Slate Sponsored by Trulieve'.

“As we head into celebrating the social and economic achievements of Americans for Labor Day, it’s important that we take a closer look at those whose employment may have been impacted by having a criminal record,” says Danielle Butler, Program Director, M4MM Project Clean Slate. “The ‘war on drugs’ has left a trail of individuals with low-level cannabis charges unable to secure gainful employment due to a plant which has now become a billion dollar industry. Labor activism extends to these individuals too.”

The return of the Orange Blossom Classic is a moment of reconnection for families and the community. Project Clean Slate is part of the restoration that our communities need.”

*Hinton Battle, President,
Justice For All Foundation*

The previous and upcoming clinics are supported through the strength of local resources and committed volunteers. Project Clean Slate’s program partner, Hawthorne, will be joined by other sponsors and community partners for Miami’s clinic including Trulieve, Doctor Damas Wellness

Center and the Justice For All Foundation. The clinic is a part of an entire weekend celebrating the return of The Orange Blossom Classic.

"After 43-years the Orange Blossom Classic is returning to Miami. This historic return marks more than a moment for football, but really speaks to a moment of reconnection for families and the community. Project Clean Slate is part of the restoration that our communities need," states Hinton Battle, President/CEO, Justice For All Foundation.

Since April 2021, Project Clean Slate has hosted expungement clinics, reaching hundreds of individuals, in Riviera Beach, FL, Phoenix, AZ and Los Angeles, CA. Efforts have also been activated in Maryland and Pennsylvania. Upcoming clinic locations include Hawthorne, CA, Capitol Heights, MD, Oakland, CA, and Las Vegas, NV.
