

Ovation LMS Partners With Paratus Group To Bring Situational Awareness Training To Organizations Nationally

This strategic partnership will bring the vital training needed to prepare employees, employers, schools and communities for the threats we face daily.

PLANO, TX , USA, September 7, 2021 /EINPresswire.com/ -- We live in an age of constant threats against our happiness and success, whether it be sexual harassment, cyber threats, bullying or active shooter situations.

The development of team members and the culture of an organization are of utmost importance, and leadership needs to focus on the development of the positive habits and behaviors that are consistent with a healthy and safe workplace. To accomplish this, leaders need to use "learning opportunities" to develop their team members, and Situational Awareness enables you and your team to identify these "learning opportunities".

This learning process allows us to act "Left of Bang" — which means being more prepared to make critical life and death decisions.

You want to be able to identify a threat as early as possible, to prevent it or keep it from happening. To do this, you need to have a process to identify, assess, predict, decide and then act.”

Brian Searcy, CEO of Paratus Group

Prepare For The Real World

Partnering with the Paratus Group and adding the Situational Awareness program to Ovation LMS was a natural and necessary step for the employers that trust in them to deliver employee training, tools and coursework for topics in workplace safety, sexual harassment, discrimination, and more. Together, we bring a unique approach to co-creating a Situational Awareness Program for organizations to improve compliance, health and wellness, and organizational performance.

Learning situational awareness is not like learning math or science, nor is it like following a recipe. The content must be learned and reinforced through coaching over an extended period of time. When developing their own situational awareness, many people are not taught the Ten Critical Skills that all work together to grant the ability to evaluate one's surroundings and make critical decisions, even under stress. These skills are Self Awareness, Perception, Perspective, Active Listening, Critical Thinking, Learning Agility, Decisiveness, Communication, Humility and Empathy. The Paratus Group program will introduce you to the threats faced by our society today, will detail these 10 Critical Skills, explain how they work together, and how they apply to your situational awareness mindset and behaviors.
