

The Newton Toilet Partition Quote Builder is LIVE

Newton Distributing has launched a tool to quote toilet partitions. Their tool allows more customization than any other builder.

NATICK, MASSACHUSETTS, UNITED STATES, September 7, 2021

/EINPresswire.com/ -- As of September 1, 2021, Newton has made their NEW toilet partition quote builder live on their website. This launch provides a tool to quote three different materials of toilet partitions. There are five significant highlights from the Newton Quote Builder that are an improvement versus competitor platforms.

Second, there are more height options meaning the customer can choose higher privacy options. Competitors do not have this feature. Third, you can choose from three different mountings such as headrail braced, floor mounted, and ceiling hung.

Fourth, the toilet partition Quote Builder offers free and insured pricing. Often times, competitors send a separate freight quote. The Newton quoting system offers great pricing and free shipping that is also insured.

Lastly, this builder provides a quick, streamlined process leading to an easier, transparent transaction. With the Quote Builder, everything you enter is instantly sent to Newton. A representative will contact you to discuss colors and make sure everything meets all your needs with a confirmation drawing. This makes it faster and easier to get your stalls quoted and ordered! Newton Distributing cares about their customer's success. Your win is their win.

If you don't want to use the builder, it's not a problem. Simply draw out your restroom layout on any media you wish and use the Upload Your Plans platform. Newton has devoted themselves to creating an easy to use platform for everyone!
