

Atlanta-Based AQRE Home Expands its Real Estate Service Across North America

ATLANTA, GEORGIA, UNITED STATES,
September 7, 2021 /EINPresswire.com/

-- AQRE Home, an Atlanta-Based competitor to Realtor.com and Zillow, is excited to announce that it has expanded to five states and two Canadian provinces since launching in August 2021. AQRE Home has quickly gained traction by offering the features and support that real estate professionals need to move properties quickly and effortlessly without learning complicated software or hiring an expensive marketing manager. To celebrate this expansion, the company is offering a 30-day guarantee to any new users - they will lease or sell listed properties within 30 days, or their services are free.

"This expansion marks an important milestone in our mission to provide real estate sellers, agents, developers and landlords with a premium real estate service for an everyday price," said Harrison, Founder and CEO of AQRE Home. "The last thing you want is to list and watch your home get lost in a sea of competitors because you lacked the support you needed to get in front of your ideal buyer."

"And when you do find a buyer, you don't want to waste time and money hiring additional support to go through the complicated legal processes. These are the issues we are trying to solve with AQRE Home."

In a simplified process, AQRE Home users can:

- conduct the entire real estate transaction inside one platform with premium 24/7 support, no complicated software or expensive middlemen required,
- attract a larger pool of buyers and renters with AQRE Home's unique features like cryptocurrency payments, instantly receive offers in their inbox,
- save thousands of dollars in lost time and a headache on closing complications
- easily manage rental properties inside one unified AQRE Home platform.

Alongside these perks are Free Listings, 24/7 Customer Service reps with over 30 years of combined real estate experience, and a unique Market Now, Pay Later formula where AQRE Home pays the cost of marketing properties until they are sold or leased.

"We believe that users are looking for more efficiency and personalized support through the real estate process, at the same low prices they are used to. If you want a premium real estate service that will go the extra mile in guiding you through the entire selling or leasing process, AQRE Home is the way to go," commended Trivelle Simpson, COO of AQRE Home.

AQRE Home is now helping users in Florida, California, Georgia, Texas and Ohio, as well as users in British Columbia and Ontario, Canada, with more plans to expand on the horizon.
