Iran from tyranny and dictatorship, an organization that has fought two dictatorships of the Shah and the mullahs, an organization that has not relented in its struggle despite having lost more than 120,000 of its members and sympathizers to the brutality of the regime.

In recent years, despite the regime's widespread efforts to demonize the MEK, the organization's network inside Iran, known as the Resistance Units, has expanded and played a major role in leading and organizing nationwide protests such as December 2017, November 2019, and January 2020.
