We created Rebel Dawg as a tribute to my dog Mika. She had seizures, and we noticed the jingling of her tags could cause a seizure attack. We created silent tags for her and other animals like here.”

are a unique gift for your favorite pooch or kitten for any occasion.. The tags are lightweight and jingle free for cats and dogs of all sizes.

“We created Rebel Dawg as a tribute to my dog Mika,” owner Stacie Amador said. “She had seizures, and we noticed the jingling of her tags could cause a seizure attack. We created silent tags for her and other animals like here.”

The tags are made from durable acrylic construction and feature fun and unique designs as well as charms. The silent construction makes them ideal for any dog or cat owner that tires of the constant jingling of tags as their pets run around the house and yard.

“Rebel Dawg is a labor of love for me,” Amador said. “Pet owners need an alternate type of tag that is fun and functional.”

A portion of the proceeds from Rebel Dawg goes to a non-profit organization. Customers get a high-quality dog tag that will last years and help a non-profit. It’s a win-win for everyone.

Pet owners that want to make the dog tag even more special, then choose a fashion mini charm that comes in several shapes and colors.
