SAN DIEGO CA, UNITED STATES, September 8, 2021 /EINPresswire.com/ -- Infused Innovations formally announces the hiring of Dave Kissee as an Engineer.

As an Engineer, Dave will be responsible for user support, triage, ticket dispatch, escalation decision-making, and Microsoft 365 support.

“When I first met the team at Infused Innovations, I was moved by their passion for the industry, as well as their innovative approach to releasing the full capability of the modern work environment. I am happy to have the opportunity to connect with such esteemed individuals, and I think that my experience with customer relations and delivering quality service and solutions will add great value and help push Infused Innovations to the next level,” says Dave.

“From the first conversation we had, I knew that Dave embodied the spirit of our “customer first” philosophy. His customer support experience, paired with his innate desire to reassure and assist, is exactly what we look for in our staff. We are all excited to welcome Dave to the Infused Innovations team,” says Jeffrey Wilhelm, CEO of Infused Innovations.

Dave’s addition to the team represents the company’s ongoing investment in client support.
