EINPresswire.com/ -- According to the new market research report 'Children
And Young Adult Books Market:

Opportunities And Strategies – Global

Forecast To 2030' published by The Business Research Company, the global children and young adult books market is expected to grow from $16.88 billion in 2020 to $18.2 billion in 2021 at a compound annual growth rate (CAGR) of 7.8%. The growth is mainly due to the companies rearranging their operations and recovering from the COVID-19 impact, which had earlier led to restrictive containment measures involving social distancing, remote working, and the closure of commercial activities that resulted in operational challenges. The market is expected to reach $21.95 billion in 2025 at a CAGR of 4.8%. The increase in the disposable income of consumers contributed to the growth of the children and the youth-adult books market.

liked by children because they are specially made for them and feature children or their friends and family members as story heroes. For instance, UK based Bang On Books provides personalized adventure books for kids where they become the main character. It allows customers to choose from several different stories online before customizing them with the child's details like photographs. Moreover, companies are increasingly offering books based on popular video games. The growing popularity of video games ensures that the books based on popular video game characters help kids generate interest in reading and telling new stories about their favorite video games. With new games being published there is also an opportunity for crossovers and a combination of the book and the videogame to create a multifaceted immersion. For instance, popular book companies like Barnes & Noble and Penguin Books offer a range of books based on video games like Pokémon, Super Mario, Angry Birds, Sonic, Daniel X, and others.
