It's the perfect way for us to end out season. Our country shop has delicious food and decorations. The pumpkin patch is overflowing. Now's the time to see the real magic of Swan's Trail Farms."

"We have 50 acres of pumpkins for picking and lots of events for everyone," Nate Krause said. "Every size and type of pumpkin is available for picking, so register today and come down to Swan's Trail Farms."

The farm is in full bloom as people from all around Washington come to find pumpkins for Halloween and Thanksgiving. They have giant pumpkins for carving and smaller for decorating. The farm is showcasing their pre-WW2 cider mill, which will be open to the public so they can see how apple cider is made. Children twist and turn their way around a 3-story hay maze. Everyone had dreams of being a prospector during the big gold rush. Swan's Trail Farms makes your dream come true with a gem mining area. Anyone looking to go on the wild side can try out 5 80-foot ziplines that are fast and furious.

"It's the perfect way for us to end out season," Krause said. "Our country shop has delicious food and decorations. The pumpkin patch is overflowing. Now's the time to see the real magic of Swan's Trail Farms."
