

Hundreds from Around the Globe Attending Virtual Latino College Expo Celebrating in UNITY Hispanic Heritage Month

Latino students around the globe connect with colleges from their laptops.

DIAMOND BAR, CA, UNITED STATES, September 10, 2021 / EINPresswire.com/ -- Diamond Bar, CA - September 10, 2021- National College Resources Foundation(NCRF) will host its 8th Annual Latino College Expo, an online experience for the second year due to the COVID-19 pandemic restrictions, for students to gain access to colleges and universities, highlighting Hispanic Serving Institutions (HSIs), and other educational programs.

We are working with our college partners to offer over 1 million in financial support for students to attend college.”

Dr. Theresa Price, Founder

Latino College Expo (LCE) provides students with information about the college admissions process and also resources to help pay for college. There are workshops about DACA, Dream Act, financial aid, scholarships, internships, career opportunities, and educational resources. In addition, some of the colleges will waive their application fees, offer scholarships, and even possibly ACCEPT students on the SPOT!

“We are thrilled to offer amazing programs for students to get educated, powered, and inspired about higher education. We are working with our college partners to offer over 1 million in financial support for students to attend college. Some of our partners will even help with funding for DACA students, it’s exciting.” says Founder Dr. Price.

The expo is sponsored by Wells Fargo, US Army, Toyota, Disney, Credera, Honda, Kinecta Federal Credit Union, Kaiser-Permanente, and Union Bank, this event will help students learn about various colleges, help high school seniors find a college home and also assist college transfer students looking to transfer to a four-year college. Educators, parents, guardians, and all ethnic backgrounds are welcomed to attend.
