Following a recent update to the site, one reviewer wrote, "English is not my native language, but I love to learn English and speak English. With the 'meet' feature in the E-Pal app, I can find many like-minded English-speaking gamers all around the world. I believe gaming, similar to music and arts, can be understood and enjoyed by everyone all over the world and there are simply no limits or borders. I love making friends with other gamers, so this app is perfectly designed for me!! The E-Pal community is also really nice and kind. The voice-chat room feature not only helps me improve my English-speaking skills but gives me a chance to talk to other like-minded gamers."

Gamers can turn to E-Pal and its Teammate Finder when their friends are not online, when they need a duo or want to make new friends. There also are the coaches to help gamers improve their rankings and gaming skills. Coaches include experienced players and professionals.

If you have free time and want some extra cash, this is about as easy as it gets. I would recommend using the website as well, as it's easier to pay out and respond to matching faster."
