Novus Shield's VieH2 HRW is a new addition to the company's product line including an all-in-one hand & mask spray, invisible glove gel, and a portable fogger

ANAHEIM, CA, UNITED STATES, September 13, 2021 / EINPresswire.com/ -- ANAHEIM, CA (September 13, 2021) – Seeking to offer more than just another water product, an Orange County-based company, Novus Shield, (<https://novusshield.com/>), has introduced VieH2 HRW (Hydrogen-Rich Water) that can potentially reduce oxidative stress and symptoms for COVID-19 and other viruses.

Novus Shield's VieH2 HRW is the latest addition to the company's patented and patent-pending next-generation product line featuring an all-in-one hand & mask spray, invisible glove gel, and a fogger. All products are FDA registered, IDC approved, and FDA approval is pending. Novus Shield has also developed a One-Step COVID-19 Antigen Self-Test Kit called VieScreen. The Self-Test-Kit has been submitted and registered for EUA (Emergency Use Authorization) and has been issued a Firm Establishment Identifier (FEI) number by the FDA and is currently ready to go to market with EUA Approval Pending status.

VieH2 HRW is powered with technology that delivers hydrogen water with the highest potency to unlock the body's potential through alleviating inflammation, boosting energy, and aiding with healing.

Seeking to offer more than just another water product, an Orange County-based company, Novus Shield, (<https://novusshield.com/>), has introduced VieH2 HRW (Hydrogen-Rich Water) that can potentially reduce oxidative stress and symptoms for COVID-19 and other viruses.

“Our VieH2 HRW contains 3ppm of hydrogen infused in the water – enough to make a difference for your health goals. That’s twice as much as other competitors and up to six times as much as hydrogen tablets can produce,” said Co Hoang, president of Novus Shield. “We offer the best hydrogen-rich water that has been proven to help reduce oxidative stress that can potentially help alleviate symptoms for COVID-19 and other sicknesses.”

Top VieH2 HRW benefits include:

- Facilitates illness recovery -- VieH2 helps reduce oxidative stress that helps alleviate symptoms for COVID-19 and other viruses. VieH2 does this by increasing and stabilizing blood oxygen levels.
- Reduces inflammation -- VieH2 may help reduce inflammation, boost energy, and promote healing for those with long-term health conditions.
- Boosts performance for even non-athletes -- VieH2 could reduce oxidative stress inside cells, improve memory and focus, and promote overall wellness.
- Enhances performance for professional athletes -- VieH2 could improve cellular function, enhance endurance, and reduce post-performance muscle fatigue.
- Improves workout results for fitness enthusiasts -- VieH2 may boost blood flow, improve performance, and reduce post-workout inflammation.

Additional key features and benefits of the company’s VieH2 product include:
