Global Tourism Awards has waived off the entry / registration and marketing fee to support the hospitality industry professionals in Year 2021 award program.

Participants are from 50+ countries that include 3,000+ nominations from around the world. 500+ companies were made into finalists this year and around 100+ winners were announced for the Year 2021. The nominees and winners are from all the regions such as the Middle East, Asia, Africa, the Americas, Oceania, and Europe. Over 70% of the nominees are from the Boutique Hotel category which makes Global Tourism Awards unique in the travel and tourism industry.

The Award Program has a jury team comprising 50+ highly experienced tourism industry professionals around the world. Every nominee is selected through two rounds of jury evaluation along with COVID protocol checks to ensure the maximum safety for every guest who stays with them. The Global Tourism Awards 2021 winner announcement is conducted without the need for Gala ceremonies where one is invited to attend social events with the condition of spending a large sum on a travel, stay & table or seat.

GTA offer an opportunity for all the winners to receive winner packages which includes promotional services, trophies, certificates, or wall plaques to commemorate their win and display for their customers. Additionally, they help provide the winners with digital and social media promotional opportunities through their publications and partners.
