

Telecom Enterprise launches the ta5sees (تاسيس) dieting mobile application

Ta5sees (تاسيس) the dieting mobile application for Arabic users is part of Telecom Enterprise strategy to establish itself as the leading Arabic diet provider

AMMAN, JORDAN, September 14, 2021 /EINPresswire.com/ -- Telecom Enterprise launches the ta5sees (تاسيس) dieting mobile application

Telecom Enterprise launched its Ta5sees (تاسيس) the dieting mobile application for Mobile Arabic users via the Google Play and Apple Appstore as part of its strategy to establish itself as the leading Arabic diet content provider.

The company is creating and documenting all the nutritional facts for Arabic meals throughout the Arab world so dietitians can use realistic healthy figures for their daily recipes.

"Creating a database for Arabic foods is a must and necessary toward healthier Arab citizens because it will help empower them with the nutritional facts they need to live longer and happier lives". Said Aiman Ziq, CEO of Telecom Enterprise.

Our gap analysis revealed there were no accurate nutrition facts for Arabic meals, which led to the development of this ambitious project.", added Aiman Ziq.

Through the use of Artificial Intelligence, Ta5sees automates dietitians' jobs to a very high degree. With its features, it serves as a dietitian in hand, focusing on weight management.

Using the Ta5sees (تاسيس) App, users can generate dynamic meals tables for various diets and keep track of the calories they consume through a user-friendly interface.
