Billabunny in association with RLHTalent Productions have produced this uplifting family hockey movie that presents a positive message to all ages. The mission of Billabunny is that it is better to believe in the impossible than to believe in nothing. We hope to inspire our audience in believing the impossible is possible.

“At some point, every person is confronted with tragedy in their life,” said executive producer Rod L Harrell of RLHTalent Productions. “They can either give up or they can overcome the obstacles set in their way. Along the way, many of us struggle keep our heads above water. ‘Playing The Crease’ is a movie that shows us that we all have in us the ability to succeed with faith and effort. Our goal is to provide a positive message of an inspirational story that will have them cheering for our main character.”
