

SAZKA Entertainment AG appoints Lord Sebastian Coe CH KBE to its board

LUCERNE, SWITZERLAND, September 17, 2021 /EINPresswire.com/ -- Four time Olympic medal winner, current President of World Athletics, and a global leader in the world of sport, Lord Sebastian Coe CH KBE is to join the board of Europe's largest lottery operator, SAZKA Entertainment AG. Lord Coe's appointment as the board's first Independent Non-Executive Director took effect as of September 14, 2021.

Sebastian Coe entered the global stage via athletics in the Moscow Olympic Games in 1980, winning a gold medal in the 1,500m and a silver in the 800m, a feat he repeated in the 1984 Los Angeles Olympic Games.

After retiring from competitive sport with twelve world records to his name in 1990, he became a Conservative MP and private secretary to William Hague, the then leader of the UK government opposition. In 2004, he became Chairman of London's bid to host the 2012 Games. When the bid successfully won against Paris, Moscow, New York, and Madrid, he went on to Chair the London 2012 Olympic and Paralympic Games Organising Committee. He has served as President of World Athletics since 2015, steering the sport on a world stage through the impact of Covid-19, including at a successful Tokyo Olympics. He was elected a member of the International Olympic Committee in 2020.

SAZKA Entertainment is a subsidiary of KKCG, the global investment group founded by Czech entrepreneur Karel Komárek. As chairman of SAZKA Entertainment's board, Mr Komárek commented: "Lord Coe has been a colossal figure on the world stage of sport, politics and business through his long and distinguished career. We're honoured to have him join our team as its first Independent Non-Executive Director. He brings tremendous additional strength to our international perspective as we strive to maximise the raising of funds for good causes in all of the markets we serve."

Logo of KKCG

Lord Sebastian Coe also commented on his appointment. "Over the years I've seen the tremendous benefit lottery funds have brought to grassroots and elite sport across the globe. I'm looking forward to joining a team with a proven track record of supporting sport at all levels in the countries where it operates. My role will be to ensure that we develop our support of sport further and ensure that SAZKA Entertainment is a powerful driving force behind grassroots and elite sport funding across Europe and beyond."

Four time Olympic medal winner, current President of World Athletics, and a global leader in the world of sport, Lord Sebastian Coe CH KBE is to join the board of Europe's largest lottery operator, SAZKA Entertainment AG. Lord Coe's appointment as the board's first Independent Non-Executive Director took effect as of September 14, 2021.

Sebastian Coe entered the global stage via athletics in the Moscow Olympic Games in 1980, winning a gold medal in the 1,500m and a silver in the 800m, a feat he repeated in the 1984 Los Angeles Olympic Games.

After retiring from competitive sport with twelve world records to his name in 1990, he became a Conservative MP and private secretary to William Hague, the then leader of the UK government opposition. In 2004, he became Chairman of London's bid to host the 2012 Games. When the bid successfully won against Paris, Moscow, New York, and Madrid, he went on to Chair the London 2012 Olympic and Paralympic Games Organising Committee. He has served as President of World Athletics since 2015, steering the sport on a world stage through the impact of Covid-19, including at a successful Tokyo Olympics. He was elected a member of the International Olympic Committee in 2020.

SAZKA Entertainment is a subsidiary of KKCG, the global investment group founded by Czech entrepreneur Karel Komárek. As chairman of SAZKA Entertainment's board, Mr Komárek commented: "Lord Coe has been a colossal figure on the world stage of sport, politics and business through his long and distinguished career. We're honoured to have him join our team as its first Independent Non-Executive Director. He brings tremendous additional strength to our international perspective as we strive to maximise the raising of funds for good causes in all of the markets we serve."

Lord Sebastian Coe also commented on his appointment. "Over the years I've seen the tremendous benefit lottery funds have brought to grassroots and elite sport across the globe. I'm looking forward to joining a team with a proven track record of supporting sport at all levels in the countries where it operates. My role will be to ensure that we develop our support of sport further and ensure that SAZKA Entertainment is a powerful driving force behind grassroots and elite sport funding across Europe and beyond.”

SAZKA Group is the parent company of SAZKA Entertainment, owning a 100% share.

About SAZKA Entertainment AG

SAZKA Entertainment is the largest pan-European lottery operator with aggregate amounts staked of more than €17bn and leading market positions in Austria, Czech Republic, Greece, Cyprus and Italy. In all the countries in which SAZKA Entertainment operates, it benefits from iconic and long-established brands, strong networks and a long history of operations.

Dana Dvořáková
SAZKA Entertainment
+420 602 372 834
dana.dvorakova@kkcg.com

This press release can be viewed online at: <https://www.einpresswire.com/article/551466422>

EIN Presswire's priority is source transparency. We do not allow opaque clients, and our editors try to be careful about weeding out false and misleading content. As a user, if you see something we have missed, please do bring it to our attention. Your help is welcome. EIN Presswire, Everyone's Internet News Presswire™, tries to define some of the boundaries that are reasonable in today's world. Please see our Editorial Guidelines for more information.

© 1995-2021 IPD Group, Inc. All Right Reserved.