

10th ANNUAL GASPARILLA MUSIC FESTIVAL ANNOUNCES FOOD LINE UP

Gasparilla Music Fest is more than just music

TAMPA, FLORIDA, UNITED STATES, September 15, 2021 /EINPresswire.com/ -- The Gasparilla Music Festival (GMF) presented by Coppertail Brewing Co. announced its food lineup for the 10th annual music fest taking place October 1-3 in Tampa's Curtis Hixon Park. Continuing the tradition of celebrating the delicious cultures of Tampa Bay, all participating food vendors are local, independently owned and operated.

Ty Rodriguez, co-owner of Tampa's Rooster & the Till, is back for his 10th year as GMF's Director of Food & Beverage.

"We are excited to be back and showcasing so many of the restaurants that make Tampa special," said Rodriguez. "We can't wait to see everyone's smiling faces."

GMF has added four new restaurants to this year's Calle Cocina lineup – Cena, King of the Coop, Lolis Mexican Cravings, and Spaddy's Coffee. These additions round out one of the most diverse 'food' festivals in the state and offer a broad slice of Tampa's ever growing Food scene.

Joining the new restaurants are returning Festival favorites; Big Ray's Fish Camp, Cafe Hey, Nebraska Mini Mart, Dochos Latin Bistro, Ella's Americana Folk Art Cafe, Ichicoro and many more. With an incredible selection of food, drink, music and more, GMF 2021 is a true celebration of all things Tampa Bay.

ABOUT Coppertail Brewing Co.

Coppertail Brewing Co. is an independent brewery and tasting room settled in the Ybor City neighborhood in Tampa, FL. It was founded with the desire to introduce more Florida-brewed beer to the masses, with help from the sea monster that lives in Tampa Bay – Coppertail. Coppertail prides themselves on giving back to the community, having involvement with many Tampa Bay organizations, such as Walk Bike Tampa, Ybor City Development Corporation (YCDC) and Goodwill Suncoast, to name a few. The brewery came to life in 2014, with 1,000 barrels of fermentation space with tanks ranging from 30 barrels to 200 barrels. Coppertail's core beer offerings are brewed throughout the year and each tell a different story with quality ingredients.
