Lion Alternative Energy appoints Hugo Roques and George Hadjipavlis as independent, non-executive directors

The additions strengthen the board and demonstrates Lion's continuing commitment to corporate governance

Lion Alternative Energy, a company dedicated to developing technologies that support the transition to sustainable, clean energy, announce that it has appointed Hugo Roque and George Hadjipavlis to its Board of Directors.

They join at an exciting time for the Company as it continues to drive its strategy of building climate-change technologies. The additions complement the existing Board and will provide valuable perspectives as the Company continues to execute its strategy, drive profitability and enhance value for all Lion's shareholders.

Commenting on the appointment, Lion's Chairman & CEO, Kostas Liapis, said "We are pleased to welcome George and Hugo as independent directors. Their experience and constructive insight not only strengthen our board but demonstrates our commitment to the highest standards of good corporate governance. We look forward to their contributions."
