from a decades-long career at the Department of Labor, and that will serve as an invaluable resource to our clients. We are excited to have him joining us and I am proud to have watched our firm grow to now 40 attorneys,” says Ms. Wagner.

Mr. Greenstein is a seasoned ERISA attorney who comes to The Wagner Law Group after nearly 25 years in the Office of Policy and Research at the Department of Labor's (DOL) Employee Benefits Security Administration (EBSA). During his tenure at the DOL, Mr. Greenstein analyzed complex legal issues arising under Title I of ERISA, including those arising under legislation, as well under Organization for Economic Co-operation and Development (OECD) and Government Accountability Office (GAO) reports. In the private sector, Mr. Greenstein represented corporate clients on ERISA Title I issues, including in connection with an application for a landmark ERISA prohibited transaction exemption.

Mr. Greenstein also served in EBSA's Office of Regulations and Interpretations, Division of Fiduciary Interpretations, where he responded to inquiries from the public and the field on ERISA

Title I issues, including fiduciary responsibility and prohibited transaction provisions. As Acting Division Chief there, Mr. Greenstein supervised the production of a large volume of advisory opinions and other guidance. He also originated the analysis that served as the basis for the Supreme Court's decision in the seminal Title I case, Commissioner v. Keystone Consol. Industries, Inc. In addition, Mr. Greenstein originated drafts and analyses serving as the basis for the DOL regulations under Section 404(c) of ERISA.

Mr. Greenstein is a Former Chair of the American Bar Association Tax Section Prohibited Transactions Subcommittee. He earned an LL.M. in Taxation from New York University School of Law and a J.D. from Villanova University School of Law, and received a Bachelor of Arts in Psychology from the University of Pennsylvania.
