Emerging supply chain companies competed with next-level ideas for industry innovation and creativity.

ORLANDO, FLORIDA, USA, September 17, 2021 /EINPresswire.com/ -- OneRail, a leading final-mile delivery fulfillment SaaS platform, announced today that the company has been named the winner of the 2021 Supply Chain Leaders in Action (SCLA) Pitch Tank contest.

OneRail streamlines your final mile delivery from dispatch to doorstep.

SCLA is the nation's leading executive supply chain business forum, granting membership to upper managers who are sponsored by their Fortune 1000 corporations.

Bill Catania, CEO/Founder

“Out of all our awards, winning SCLA Pitch Tank means the most because of where this award comes from — the industry,” said OneRail Founder and CEO Bill Catania. “To be honored by the leaders, experts and pioneers who have innovated where we stand today is incredibly special.”

The annual SCLA Pitch Tank, which this year took place on September 15 during the annual three-day SCLA Executive Symposium in Fort Myers, Fla., allows select companies to present their solutions to the SCLA Executive Committee. 2021 judges included senior executives from Ferguson, Neiman Marcus, Collier and Werner.

The opportunity to participate in the Pitch Tank is invite-only. Catania represented the company after being invited based on his presence and passion for last-mile and winning technology. Conference attendance is comprised of senior supply chain executives from each member corporation.

As a Pitch Tank provider, OneRail was positioned as both a leading provider and educator, with the opportunity to present its final-mile delivery fulfillment SaaS platform. Involvement in SCLA provides OneRail with the opportunity to develop relationships with supply chain executives from the country's largest corporations while educating them on the value of OneRail's 3-in-1 delivery logistics solution.
