The Business Research Company's Printer Global Market Report 2021: COVID-19 Growth And Change

LONDON, GREATER LONDON, UK,
September 20, 2021 /

EINPresswire.com/ -- According to the new market research report 'Printer Global Market Report 2021' published by The Business Research Company, the printer market is expected to grow from $132.41 billion in 2020 to $144.62 billion in 2021 at a compound annual growth rate (CAGR) of 9.2%. The growth is mainly due to the companies rearranging their operations and recovering from the COVID-19 impact, which had earlier led to restrictive containment measures involving social distancing, remote working, and the closure of commercial activities that resulted in operational challenges. The market is expected to reach $171.82 billion in 2025 at a CAGR of 4.4%. The rising demand for 3D printers drives the growth of the printer market.

The printer market consists of sales of printers by entities (organizations, sole traders, and partnerships) that provide printers, which are output devices that can be connected to computers to print paper documents. This includes text documents, images, or a combination of both. Only goods and services traded between entities or sold to end consumers are included.

Trends In The Global Printer Market

Advancing technologies are gaining popularity in the printer market. Major companies operating in the printing industry are focusing on developing advanced technology solutions for printers. For instance, in July 2019 HP Inc, a USA-based hardware company launched HP Neverstop Laser printer that is designed for companies in India to recreate smart printing technology. The HP Neverstop Laser Printer is an all-new, fast-reload laser printer that allows small and medium enterprises to save critical business time and costs, thereby expanding their efficiency. The
