

MaxVal and RWS Partner to Provide Streamlined Delivery of International Filing and Translation Services

Integrating RWS's IP services within MaxVal's Symphony IPMS will Provide Customers with a Better Experience and More Efficient Service.

LOS ALTOS, CALIFORNIA, UNITED STATES, September 20, 2021 /EINPresswire.com/ -- Silicon Valley-based intellectual property (IP) solutions provider MaxVal announced their partnership with RWS that will deliver international patent translation and filing services through Symphony, MaxVal's leading IP management system (IPMS). The partnership will benefit customers by providing a more efficient ability to order, confirm, track and maintain international filing projects while improving the quality of their patent translations.

RWS, the world's leading provider of technology-enabled language, content management, and intellectual property services, is expanding their distribution by making their services available to customers, through Symphony, in a one-stop-shop delivery model. The combination of RWS's services, provided through Symphony, will allow IP practitioners to more easily request translations, EP validation, and PCT/national filings, all within the one system that they use to manage their patent portfolio and IP lifecycle.

"Partnering with MaxVal was an easy decision," said Neil Simpkin, President, RWS IP Services. "It is clear that they are delivering an excellent customer experience through smart technology. Their Symphony IPMS provides the ideal platform for streamlining access to RWS IP services and increasing customer satisfaction."

D. Bommi Bommanan, Chief Executive Officer of MaxVal added, "We believe customers want to make IP tasks and workflow more efficient by consolidating processes, with faster access to better services at their fingertips. MaxVal continues to lead the IP market by incorporating services, automation, and intelligence within our Symphony IPMS. RWS, as the world leader, was the natural partner for adding translation and international filing capabilities."
