GEMXX Corporation (OTC: GEMZ) GEMZ; "the Company"), a leader in the Ammolite Gems mine to market segment is pleased to announce that the company has been spotlighted in "Global Business Leaders Mag" as one of the "20 Best Companies to Watch in 2021"

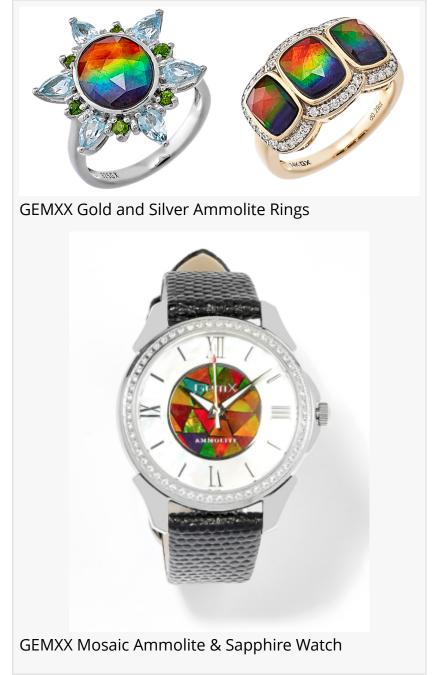

"It was a great honor to be considered by Global Business Leaders Mag and a greater honor to be designated one of the 20 Best Companies to Watch in 2021" commented Jay Maull CEO and President of GEMXX Corporation.

The article, which can be found at the following link:

https://globalbusinessleadersmag.com/gemxx-corporation-the-pioneer-of-the-ammolite-industry/ highlights the company's management team of veterans and its plan to change the industry for the better. The article helps investors understand how quality workmanship, environmental stewardship, and a solid forward-looking vision for an industry will allow a new company to make big strides in a very short amount of time.

For the past 6000 years, gemstones have been traded and admired by millions. Among the precious gemstones, the discovery of Ammolite can be traced back to the 20th century, relatively new in gem history. Ammolite is and multi-colored iridescent organic gemstone that rivals the best Black Opal. Since its discovery, the gem market has keenly shown interest in Ammolite, with rising value and demand, Ammolite has increased in value by over 300% in the last 20 years.

Further, the article outlines the company's desire to work with other key industry players to change the perception and value of a globally recognized gemstone. Richard Clowater (VP of Mergers, Acquisitions and Business Development) commented "this designation is great for GEMXX, but it is also very good for the industry. It is our goal to work with key players within the industry to achieve our goal of improving the image, value, and desire of this very rare and beautiful gemstone."
