Solar stock news from Investorideas.com

Newsire and RenewableEnergyStocks.com - Solar Integrated Roofing Corp. (OTC: SIRC), an integrated, single-source solar power and roofing systems installation company, today announced that it has formed a strategic partnership with Storm Ventures Group ("SVG") and SVG University to educate contractors within the SVG network on the benefits of adding solar to their service offering via USA Solar Networks, a member of the SIRC family of companies.

Storm Ventures Group (SVG) is the premier contractor consulting firm. With over 25 years of experience, the company mobilizes contractors throughout the U.S., Canada, Europe and Australia to successfully manage catastrophic storm events. SVG helps joint ventures build sales teams, project managers, property inspectors, and specialty trade contractors to help communities rebuild quickly after storms and catastrophic events. SVG, under the direction of CEO Anthony Delmedico, has created a new Solar Division alongside Solar Integrated Roofing Corp. that utilizes their sophisticated SVG University program to educate roofers on the lucrative solar industry.

USA Solar Networks, led by CEO Pablo Diaz, has created a full-service National Dealer and Contractor Program that supplies support, sales, and install services to its 95+ dealers across the country. The 40+ contractors that are used for the install services are all vetted and fully approved by USA Solar Networks, and are mandated to provide the best customer experience to all clients originating in the program. Per the terms of the agreement, USA Solar Networks will work with SVG and its network of contractors to drive new solar sales in key regions nationwide.

Diaz added: "The solar industry is booming, and the opportunity for growth from a partnership with a reputable firm like SVG is truly boundless. We believe this could drive an incremental 100 projects per monthly, generating millions in sustainable monthly revenues. This strategic partnership will enable USA Solar Networks to engage new dealers and continue to assert itself as the premier national solar dealer and contractor program in the country. I look forward to working with Anthony Delmedico and his team to drive sustainable value creation for our shareholders over the long-term."
