We discover stars and help them shine!

Forte International Music Competition is an annual event open to piano, strings, woodwinds, brass, and vocalists of all nationalities, ages 4 - 35.

It begins with an easy registration process online via redesigned and optimized website to help improve the user's experience. As part of the competition, participants receive valuable feedback from the distinguished judges at every round of the competition and outstanding musicians and their teachers are recognized with certificates, medals, trophies, cash prizes, and other special awards. Additional awards include a free subscription with iClassical Academy, the world's leading online classical music learning platform, First Prize Award trophy and check for $150 presented to the highest scoring competitor within each age category, and a Platinum Award and check for $1,000 presented to one competitor with best musical, technical, and artistic ability across all age categories. Please see the website for a full list of prizes and awards. Above all, competitors learn to better understand, perform, and enjoy music.

Due to COVID-19, Preliminary and Semi-Final rounds of the competition will take place online on December 4th-5th, 2021. Final Round will be conducted virtually on December 11th, followed by Winner's Concert live at Carnegie Hall on February 5th, 2022.

The Early Bird deadline is October 15th. If you need more time to apply you can do so by November 10th. Get ready and apply today!
