"When you retire, nothing is more expensive than a missed doctor appointment," says Wayland Bruns, CTO at DejaOffice. "You have to reschedule it and pay for it, and you better not miss it again! You need a secure app to manage your retirement. With it, you can efficiently juggle tasks, family gatherings, and birthdays, DejaOffice runs as fast as old Palm Desktop. Like Palm – DejaOffice is fully compatible with your cell phone. You can track your Contacts with Birthdays and Anniversaries, Customers, Our new users can easily effortlessly see each of the module's functions, allowing a user to perform the majority of operations with just a few clicks. In addition, our system automatically records and organizes contact data and calendar tasks from other applications, saving you time and effort.

DejaOffice has the four Apps found in PalmPilot organizers; Contacts, Calendars, Tasks, and Memos. You can easily track birthdays and anniversaries. It has advanced reminders for recurring events, appointments, and tasks. Everything you enter in DejaOffice is backed up to the PC when you sync, preserving your data even if you lose your phone.

DejaOffice has an optional RunStart for an additional $49, where one of our experienced technicians can log into your PC once to set up the CRM and migrate your data as needed. You can also buy Premium Support for $129, which allows our techs to log into your PC and solve any issues you may run into for an entire year. DejaOffice is incredibly easy to install and runs swiftly.

DejaOffice PC CRM Pro is a 5-user version for $199.95 (one-time price - $40 per user), which can help organize a family, a club, or a nonprofit organization. Each person has unique login and password. With this Calendar, Notes and Tasks can be distributed between people, so you can make your calendar or task visible to other family members. Each family member can now stay in the loop on appointments or gatherings.
